Dear Mr. Szubinski:

It was an exciting day when the new Weinberg Campus website went live! The website redesign went smoothly. Special thanks to Web Developer Tim O'Connell for completing all of the development aspects and meeting our launch deadline. I commend Tim for successfully implementing the website and taking care of the behind-the-scenes work.

Over the past month, there have been lots of changes going back and forth. Partnership Advertising provided the creative work, and along with Tim, they worked very well together to produce a new and improved website. I personally worked with Tim and appreciated his knowledge, creative abilities, attention to detail, and patience.

The new website looks wonderful and we have been receiving positive feedback. Thank you again to Tim for his talent and for your support.

Sincerely,

Nicole Passantino
Marketing Director
